Christmas in Paris is simply Magical. Paris at Christmastime is as refined as the City itself. Every corner of every Quartier has its own Special Enchantment from lively outdoor ice skating rinks to the many charming Christmas Markets that line the Streets andSsquares. Paris isn´t called the City of Light for nothing, and especially so at Christmas.

Long known as the Fashion Capital of the World, Paris offers something for every Shopper, regardless of your Style, Budget, and Interests. That's why so many millions of Visitors come here each year to shop. Beyond Chic Clothing Boutiques, you'll find Art Galleries, Home Furnishing Emporiums, Books of all Vintages, Antiques, Jewelry, and everything else you might desire.

COMITE MONTAIGNE: Set up in 1971 by Founding Chairman Jacques Rouët, the Comité Montaigne brings together the Luxury Stores on Avenue Montaigne and Rue François 1er under a Common Umbrella and enhances their International Visibility. With nearly 80 Members to date, the Comité Montaigne regularly creates and organizes Initiatives and Events to boost their Image both in France and Abroad.
